

The God of Victory
Psalm 2
Sunday, May 30, 2021

Introduction- As we observe Memorial Day, it reminds us that the freedoms we enjoy as Americans have come at a great price. If victories had not been won by the many who fought to defend our freedoms, we would not be enjoying these freedoms today.

In Psalm 2 we read of a conflict being fought by the true and living God. Yes, God is at war, and there is no doubt that He will obtain a full and everlasting victory. From Psalm 2 we see the . . .

Opposition- (vs. 1-3)

A question - v. 1

God's enemies- v. 2

The objectives of God's enemies- v. 3

When we encounter opposition for following Christ, we should not take it personally- Acts 9:4-5, I Peter 5:7

Overcoming- (vs. 4-9)

The Sovereign- v. 4

The speaking- v. 5

The setting up- vs. 6-9

There is no doubt about how this conflict will end. There is also no neutrality for each and every human being-- inevitably, we all choose either God's side or Satan's.

Outreach- (vs. 10-12)

God reaches out to His enemies- vs, 10,12

Salvation leads to humble service- v. 11

Have you personally received God's gift of salvation? If so, how are you and I doing with reaching out to those who have not?
